

AIA Five Years On

Monday, September 19, 2016 | 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Welcome

Dana Harris, Vice President
Federal Advocacy, Austin Chamber of Commerce

Master of Ceremonies

Brian Nash, President, Austin IP Law Association

Why this anniversary is important

Patents & IP in Texas and the Nation

A Special Message from:
United States Senator John Cornyn

AIA Celebrating Five Years of Innovation Reform

A Special Message from:
United States Representative Lamar Smith

Achievements, Plans & Vision of the Texas Regional U.S. Patent & Trademark Office

Hope Shimabuku, Regional Director,
United States Patent & Trademark Office, Texas Regional Office

Panel Discussion: "Has the AIA Met Its Promise & What's the Road Ahead?"

A View from the Perspectives of:

The Bench: The Honorable Lee Yeakel, United States District Judge, Western District of Texas

The Bar: Bill Hulsey, Principal, Hulsey PC

The Industry: Anthony Peterman, Vice President, Intellectual Property, Dell

The Innovator: Steve Frayser, Executive Director of STAR Park, Texas State University

The USPTO: Hope Shimabuku, Regional Director, United States Patent & Trademark Office,
Texas Regional Office

Moderated by: Gary Hoover, Serial Entrepreneur, Cofounder of BOOKSTOP and Hoovers.com

Thank you to our hosts

HULSEY pc
Intellectual Property Lawyers

